“THE ARTIST WITHIN ME”

LEARNING TO PAINT WHILE LISTENING TO CLASSICAL MUSIC
ART TEACHING PROGRAM
LEVEL I

Thursdays

3 YEARS OLD AND UP
4:00 PM TO 5:00 PM

12 classes

$360

Entire Season

FIRST CLASS:
SEPTEMBER 3RD

This art program was created by the artist Pat Morales to teach children how to express themselves through painting while listening to the classical music of famous composers such as Mozart, Chopin, and Handel.

This combination helps to stimulate their imagination, develop their creativity and their emotions. It will improve their fine motor skills and abilities; it enhances their communication skills and self-confidence.

They will learn Art Principles, like lines, the color wheel, and how we can use colors to express our emotions; the geometric shapes and organic shapes and how to combine all together to create a unique artistic composition that reflects their personalities and energy.

This program also develops knowledge about modern arts and different cultures.

Children will learn about the life of many important modern artists, to understand their art work and how to recognize them. Like Kandinsky, who combined musical notes with colors to create one of the most important abstract art styles.

They will learn about Pollock, and his Action Art.

By learning geometric shapes, they will learn about Malevich, and how he expressed himself by painting the simple shapes.

They will learn about Rothko, and how important it was for him to transmit an emotion through his colored shapes.

By learning about organic shapes, they will learn about Rousseau, and how he enjoyed painting the forest, and about Van Gogh, and his famous sunflower painting that he created to welcome his friend Gauguin.

It is a very fun and enriching class for children, and the results in their paintings and knowledge of art will yield beautiful results.
